Family Reading Night: This Thursday, November 19th, celebrate the State of Illinois' Family Reading Night. Read some good books, have some fun and send a photo of your family reading to Mr. Godfrey for the morning messages. A flyer will be coming home with more information and fun ideas for Family Reading Night. Some ideas include: pajama party, snack or treasure hunt based on the book, acting out book characters, etc. Be creative!

Here is more information: https://www.cyberdriveillinois.com/departments/library/center_for_the_book/frn.html

If you have any questions, please contact Mrs. Brauweiler directly.

BOOK FAIR CONTEST: Everyone is invited to participate in the book fair contest this year. Draw your favorite book cover with you on the cover as well. Send it to Mr. Godfrey in SeeSaw and your name will be put into the raffle for a free book. One winner from each classroom. More information this week in Mr. Godfrey's morning message and in Library Time.
