

YOUNG FILMMAKERS CONTEST 2016

Open to students from college age to third grade with recognition to winners in each category – college, high school, middle school and elementary school.

Part of the One Earth Film Festival
oneearthfilmfest.org
Submissions due January 17, 2016

Win a cash prize

from $75 to $500 as well as a matching grant for the sustainability organization of your choice.

Show off your talents

Make your resume and/or college application sparkle with your award.

Win a world premier screening of your film at One Earth Film Festival, the Midwest's Premier Environmental Film Festival, taking place in March 2016.

The challenge

Create a well-researched 3-8 minute film or a short 45-second animation on one of 6 specific issues related to climate change and sustainability (water, waste, food, transportation, energy, open space and ecosystems).

Filmmaking workshop: Attend our youth filmmaking workshop (for middle and elementary school only) to help you prepare a terrific entry! Stay tuned to the website for dates, registration and more information.

The judges will be film professionals and leaders within the environmental community.

Submission deadline is 5 pm, Sunday, January 17, 2016.

Spread the word to your friends, family, neighbors, other classrooms or schools. Point people to oneearthfilmfest.org

Distribution of information by a community group in accordance with a school district's policy does not imply, directly or indirectly, that the group's program(s), event(s) and/or service(s) is sanctioned, sponsored or endorsed by the district, the Board of Education or the superintendent.