Executive and Administrative Reports

Superintendent Report

- tonight (Feb. 6) the new OPRF superintendent will speak at Roosevelt from 6-8 p.m.
- March 17 at 9:30 a.m. there will be another talk held for those who couldn't make the evening event
- district is continuing to participate in the SAMSA grant
- “To Good For Drugs” is the new program implemented in 5th grade in conjunction with the RFPD
- C.O.W meeting to be held on Feb. 7-topic of technology
- One Book One District Initiative will begin in the fall
- Inclusiveness survey will come out in March (there are two meetings left-one in March and one in May)

Principal Report

- it's the 100th day of school today!
- reminder to sign up for conferences
- Kindergarten information night was well attended
- Lincoln is hiring at least 2 new teachers for next year
- the Math pilot 'Investigations' has started and Everyday Math (the second pilot curriculum) will begin in March

Teacher Liason

-teachers are thinking about what they will be donating for the auction (which will be held at Skrine Chops)

President's Report

-the district allergy committee wanted to relay the importance of school allergy guidelines
-2017-2018 PTO slate—brainstorm on how to recruit new volunteers

Treasurers Report

-nothing new to report

Fundraising

-Free Fundraisers: Sugarcup is this Thursday (Feb 9) with an upcoming Potbellys one this month and Portillos in March; boxtops still need to be counted (possibly have Heartworks volunteers to count and/or cut?)

-Fun Lunch: found out we can't overlap current enrollment and new registration—too much confusion; will reach out to Willard and Roosevelt to see how they organize their process; Pam suggested Angie Davis may be up for consulting to help with spreadsheets; there will be a new policy implemented that if fun lunch conflicts with a field trip, it will be a PTO donation and no refund will be given

-Yearbook: we found volunteers to get us through the rest of the year and are still looking into how much it will cost to have it done for us next year; they are on sale right now on Web Store

-Auction: to be held Friday, March 10 at Skrine Chops; they are collecting donations and there will be some 'live' auction items

Instructional and Extra Curricular

- International Fest: 90 kids are registered; still looking for volunteers to serve as "tour guides"; 10 countries are represented
- Winter Sports Camp/Chess Club: both going well
- GOTR: registration still open and still accepting coach volunteers
- Science Expo: a big success

Social, Community and Hospitality

- Heartworks: nothing new to report

C4K

- looking into potential GAGA Ball options for playground (ask teachers interest)
- having a meeting with Dr. Cara Hurley today to discuss the book talk on Feb. 16
- a few of us are going to hear Kristen Race speak about mindfulness through a D181 talk tomorrow (Feb. 7)

Board Liason

- blended preschool survey showed success in program and looking into how it may look next year
- 3 hr. of graduate course credit offered through Dominican about technology

New Business

- none

Next Meeting Date

- Tues, March 7 at 8:45 a.m. in the Multipurpose Room

Meeting Adjourned: 9:50 a.m.
