

	Event	To Qualify	Parent Initials
	Basketball	Read a book with a ball in it Becoming Babe Ruth
	Diving	Read a book with flying on the cover El Deafo
	Fencing	Read a book where things are undercover Eddie Red Undercover: Mystery on Museum
	Pentathlon	Read 5 animal books Spirit Animals: Wild Born The Fourteenth Goldfish Mrs. Frisby and the Rats of NIMH Neighborhood Sharks: The Journey that Saved Curious George
	Rowing	Read a book about sitting Sit In: How Four Friends Stood Up by Sitting
	Shooting	Read a book about war War that Saved my Life, The
	Sprints	Read a poetry book Gone Fishing: A Novel in Verse
	Swimming	Read a book with water Rain Reign
	Synchronised Swimming	Read a book with alliteration in the title Absolutely Almost

	Triathlon	Read a book that is part of a series Lulu's Mysterious
	Weightlifting	Read a book that is over 250 pages Justin Case: Another Daily

Bronze Complete Six Events 	Silver Complete Ten Events 	Gold Complete All Events
---	--	---

Welcome to this year's reading challenge! As the world recently completed this year's Olympics, Lincoln School will have their own - the Reading Olympics!

Our Reading Olympics will consist of various events that require a specific book. The books are from this year's Bluestem Award: Illinois' Grades 3-5 Readers' Choice Award.

If you read six books from the list, you are a bronze medal athlete. You can vote for your favorite book.

If you read ten books from the list, you are a silver medal athlete. You can vote for your favorite book and get your photo on the Olympic podium.

If you read all 15 books, you are a gold medal athlete. You can vote for your favorite books, get your photo taken, and attend a Reading Olympics lunch party.

As you read each book, have an adult initial that you read the book.

These forms are due March 1, 2017 or earlier.

On your mark, get set, go!