What Can I expect if this is my first time attending an Auction?

The Silent part of the auction is where bidding will take place through the ClickBid software. The Live part of the auction will start at approximately 8:30pm and you must be in attendance to bid on items. A live auctioneer will describe the item and guide bidding prices. The audience will raise their paddle with an assigned number on it. Bidding will close on an item once no one raises their paddle to place a higher bid.
